

CO222 – Programming Methodology

Lab 00: An Introduction to Linux CLI

Instruction Sheet

The primary objective of Lab00 is to introduce you to Unix Command Line Interface (CLI). Lab00 is run online, and the instructors of the lab will interact with you via the Internet.

You need to login to a separate FEeLS course to complete this lab. The lab runs for five-seven weeks (in parallel to the rest of the programming labs). Since it is an online lab, you will NOT be regularly scheduled lab slots for completing Lab00. The exception is the very first lab, which will be face to face (was scheduled for Wednesday, 17th Jan).

Following are some information about Lab00:

- Workload: 1 to 2 hours per week, for 5-7 weeks
- Conducted online through FEeLS
